

Malvik Turn og RG is looking for a coach in Rhythmic Gymnastics (RG)

“Malvik Turn og RG” is a gymnastics club with about 200 members, located in Malvik, just outside the city of Trondheim.

The club offers rhythmic gymnastics and team gymnastics, both on a competitive and a recreational level. We are looking for an experienced coach who wants to help us develop the RG in our club further.

As a coach you will have the main responsibility for the RG trainings. This includes:

- Making detailed periodic plans and plans for each training session
- Organizing varied, motivating trainings, that aim to develop all gymnasts, irrespective of level and training background
- Working with gymnasts at different levels and within different age groups
- Contributing to the development of assistant coaches
- Working towards a good social environment
- Attending relevant courses and seminars

Wanted qualifications/attributes:

- Experience as a rhythmic gymnastics coach and other relevant courses
- A pedagogical style as a coach and the ability and will to cooperate
- Experience from working with children is an advantage
- You should be familiar with the international code of points and experience from competitions and/or judging is an advantage
- You speak either Norwegian or English
- Experience in ballet is favourable
- We are looking for a coach that wants to cooperate with us in bringing the RG group in Malvik to a higher level

We offer:

- 80-100 % employment
- Salary negotiable
- An opportunity to develop and shape a growing RG-club and region

Preferred start date in august 2019. The working hours are mainly in the evenings, and some work on weekends is expected. There will also be some administrative work. As a coach in Malvik turn og RG, it's expected that you follow the general rules for Norwegian athletics, and the guidelines of Malvik turn og RG.

If you are interested send an application including a CV and credentials to: styret@malvikturnogrg.no by 20th of June 2019.

If you have any questions please contact: Vibeke Trøa, executive director in Malvik turn og RG; dagligleder@malvikturnogrg.no or Marte Stalsberg, head coach RG; marte.stalsberg@hotmail.com.
